

February 2018 Mystery Photo

Birches, artist Tom Sachade

Here we have another mural on a commercial establishment. This one is on the south façade of Fairhome Interiors at 468 Brant Street.

The artist is Tom Sachade. Tom is a Burlington resident who paints murals for private residences and, in this case, commercial buildings.

The next time you are walking north on Brant Street, look up ↑ and you will see a fine example of the artist's work.

Anne Wingfield, who knew where the mural is, gave me some additional information. It seems the artist painted it without proper authorization from the city. Rumour was that the city wanted it removed. However, local business owners and the BIA spoke on his behalf to allow it to remain as it added a new dimension to the downtown.

Photo by Pat Taylor

J. Downey